DEMOCRATIC MEETING. The meeting of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club on Saturday night was fairly well attended, the weather being very inclement. Mr. R. D. Brumback, the first speaker, was introduced and he spoke of conditions as they existed in this country at present. He compared the principles and workings of the democratic party with those of the republican party and closed his remarks with an sppeal to the voters to stind loyally by the nominees of the party and work hard to increase Hon. C. C. Carlin's maj ri-ty. Mr. Howard W. Smith was then introduced and spoke highly of the qualities of the democratic standard bearers. He referred to the principles of both parties and asked for a comparison of the two. He referred to the benefit to be received by the election of W. J. Bryan and orged harmony in the ranks and appealed for a uni ed front on the day of election. On tomorrow night Hon. H. St George Tucker will address the democrats at the Opera House. Mr. Tucker is a forceful debater and it will be a rare treat to hear him. The members of the City Course. bers of the City Council, city officials, the democratic committee and the execu tive officers of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club are invited to take seats on the pistform. The gallery has been reserved for ladies. Mr. S. G. Brent, president of the club, will introduce the speaker. BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of the late Henry Strauss took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late home, 407 Prince street, and was conducted by Rabbi Stern, of Washington. The services were attended by the members of Alexandria-Washington Lodge and Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons and Alexandria Lodge of Eks, and members of the Merchants' Club The active pallbear rs were Messrs. R. Lee Field and Wm. Baader, repr senting the Elks; R. W. Arnold and L. Ruben, representing the Masons; M. Wollberg, B. Weil and E. Goldsmith, representing the synagogue; and S. H. Lunt, a personal friend. The honorary pallbearers were Messrs. Charles R. Hough, I. Eichberg, F. F. Marbury, John M. Johnson, Henry Baader and L. H. Thompson. A large number of friends were present to pay their respects to his memory and followed his remains to the cemetery. The interment was in the Jewish Cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful and profuse. While the cortege was on its way to the cemetery the bell in the City Hall was tolled by order of acting Mayor Curtin.

ACCUSED DISMISSED.

Officer Knight this morning cited P. W. Harvey, who conducts a saloon in the northern section of the city, to ap-pear before the Police Court on the charge of selling liquor to a minor. The order was made at the instance of Wm. H. Travers, who alleged that Harvey he had previously warned the saloon-keeper of the consequences of entertain-Harvey in his defense showed that he had followed the father's instructions, and that his son had not obtained liquor in his saloon since last It was also alleged that the January.
